

6th Annual

North America PLATO User Conference

October 11, 2017

USA | Ypsilanti, MI

Presented by PLATO North America Inc.

Location:

Eastern Michigan University
Student Center, Room SC 310
900 Oakwood St, Ypsilanti, MI 48197

Location:

Eastern Michigan University
Student Center, Room SC 310
900 Oakwood St, Ypsilanti, MI 48197

Agenda

Wednesday, October 11, 2017

10:00 AM	Participation Check-in (Coffee available)
10:15 AM	PLATO Address of Welcome and Introduction
10:30 AM	“AIAG-VDA FMEA Alignment” (Rhonda L. Brender, Engineering Manager at Nexteer Automotive)
11:30 AM	Product Presentation: „Scoping, System Analysis with e1ns.aspects and e1ns.architect” (Michael Gadau, PLATO AG)
12:00 PM	Lunch and Networking Break (On-Site Lunch provided) Installation of e1ns (Web-FMEA) is available for testing
01:30 PM	“Template Management - Successful Implementation of Generic Baselines” (Claudia Lange, PLATO AG)
02:30 PM	Customer Presentation: "FMEA Selection Process and High Level Plans" (Rafael Alvarez, FMEA Project Leader, General Motors)
03:15 PM	Coffee Break
03:45 PM	Customer Presentation: “System Design FMEA for a Suspension Corner Module” (Stephen Mellott, Sr. Engineer, Center of Competence, Tenneco NA)
04:15 PM	Customer Presentation: “Scalability for Enterprise Applications with e1ns” (IT Representative, General Motors)
04:45 PM	Final Words on the 6th Annual PLATO User Conference and Final Networking Opportunity
05:00 PM	Conference Conclusion